After the Parade arrives and positions are taken, the Parade Marshal will salute the Clergy as the signal for the service to commence (approximately 10.40 am)

Castle Bromwich
Parish Council

Clergy: We are gathered here to remember those who have died as a result of human conflict, and particularly those who fell in the two World Wars. Our remembrance will be in prayer and silence and symbolised in the laying of our wreaths.
Let us now in prayer recollect God's presence who, in Lord Jesus Christ, has restored all things and will bring human loss and failure to perfection for he is Lord of All and King of All.

Let us pray,

Almighty and Eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: Hear our prayers and thanksgiving for whom we remember this day; fulfill in them the purpose of your love; and bring us all with them to your eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Castle Bromwich Parish Council

Chairperson,
Cllr P Allen

In Flanders' Fields by Colonel John McCrae.

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

Take up the quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch: be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep; though Poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

Hymn

William Blake (1757-1827)

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains Green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine.
Shine forth upon Our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and Pleasant land.

Castle Bromwich
Parish Council

Clergy: Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping, those who have died for their country in war; those who we knew, and those whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of mankind.

All: Amen

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name,
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
On earth as it is in Heaven,
Give us this day, our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the Glory, for ever and ever,
AMEN.

Revd Fiona Harrison-Smith will read the names from the memorial of those to be remembered.

THE LAYING OF WREATHS

The Chair of the Parish Council
The Youth Parish Council
Officers of the Royal British Legion
The Services
Solihull Borough Councillors
Emergency Services
Other Dignitaries

Clergy will invite those on Parade to fall out to make their own act of remembrance, before the public and local organisations are invited to lay wreaths or crosses.

If time allows the personal tributes will be laid before the silence.

One-Way System operates at the Memorial.
[Please make your way to the entrance on the left-hand side (as facing the Memorial), lay your wreath or cross and exit on the right-hand side. Please follow the instructions of the marshals and take care on the grass.]

Legion:

Cllr J Macdonald

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning.
We will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

Bugler: The Last Post.

TWO MINUTES SILENCE

Bugler: Reveille.

Legion: When you go home, Tell them of us and say, for your tomorrow, we gave our today.

(If not done prior to the two minutes silence the Clergy will invite members of the public to lay their wreaths or crosses at this point in the service.)

Hymn

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who biddest the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!

O Christ! Whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at Thy Word,
Who walked on the foaming deep,
And calm amidst its rage didst sleep;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!

Most Holy Spirit! Who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
And bid its angry tumult cease,

And give, for wild confusion, peace;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee,
For those in peril on the sea!

O Trinity of love and power!
Our family shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect us wheresoever we go;
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

READING POEMS:
Read by members of Castle Bromwich Junior School

Youth Cllr – Spoken lyrics from 'You Will Never Walk Alone'

You'll Never Walk Alone
When you walk through a storm
Hold your head up high
And don't be afraid of the dark
At the end of a storm
There's a golden sky
And the sweet silver song of a lark

Walk on through the wind
Walk on through the rain
For your dreams be tossed and blown
Walk on with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone

Castle Bromwich
Parish Council

Chairperson, Cllr P Allen

A reading from Johns Gospel, Chapter 15

Jesus said: “As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father’s commands and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command. I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master’s business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit – fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. This is my command: Love each other.”

This is the word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Castle Bromwich Parish Council

Clergy: The Act of Commitment is made

Clergy: Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service. Will you strive for all that makes for?

All: We will.

Clergy: Will you seek to heal the wounds of war?

All: We will.

Clergy: Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

All: We will.

Clergy: Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love: may we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people, and live lives of justice, courage and mercy; through Jesus Christ our risen redeemer.

All: Amen

Clergy: A blessing is given

Castle Bromwich
Parish Council

All: NATIONAL ANTHEM

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King,
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
God save the King

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King

Clergy: Now the Service has ended could all members of the public return to the pavements and clear the roads for the Parade to leave.

(A march past and salute consisting of the Chairperson, Clergy and other dignitaries will take place at the Village Green before the Parade returns to the starting place and is dismissed.)

SAFETY INFORMATION

NO TRAFFIC TO MOVE

Until after the Parade has been dismissed.
Roads will not be fully open until it is safe to do so.

Thanks are expressed to all those members of the community who have volunteered their time or services to enable this event to take place.
